MCCARTHY ASKS CHECK ON CIA POLICYMAKING

East Berlin Domestic Service in German 0934 GMT 25 January 1966--G

(Text) U.S. Democratic Senator McCarthy has expressed serious concern over the influence of the so-called Central Intelligence Agency on U.S. foreign policy in a resolution submitted to Congress yesterday.

The Senator refers to the role the CIA has been playing in the Dominican Republic and in Vietnam. He demands that a commission be assigned to fully and thoroughly examine CIA influence on U.S. foreign policy. Since the birth of the U.S. intelligence service, its work has never officially been checked, the Senator claims.
